

Annual Conference 2010

Novotel Melbourne, St Kilda, Victoria

October 12-14, 2010

Third Announcement

Welcome to the BioProcessing Network Conference 2010

It is with great pleasure that the Organising Committee welcomes you to participate in the BioProcessing Network Conference for 2010. This meeting will gather together researchers, manufacturers, suppliers and others with an active interest in bioprocessing. Informative presentations will be followed with lively discussion on the presented new data, new developments and emerging trends and concepts - all in a relaxed environment where participants can catch up with old friends and establish new contacts.

Scientific Program

The scientific program of BPN 2010 will be developed by the chairmen based on papers submitted for oral and poster presentation. There will be a poster session and ample opportunity to meet and exchange views with colleagues outside of the lecture room at breaks.

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Julian Clark, Business Development Director, Walter and Eliza Hall Institute of Medical Research
